Utkarsh tiwari

Profile

I'm Utkarsh Tiwari, a BCA student graduating in 2027 with a strong passion for technology and web development. I have hands-on experience in C, C++, Python, and frontend development using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I adapt quickly and continuously expand my knowledge to stay up-to-date in the tech world. I've built several projects, including my portfolio website and a weather application. I enjoy turning ideas into functional and creative web experiences. My goal is to become a full-stack developer, build real-world solutions, and grow as a dynamic contributor in the software industry.
